THE DEMON'S DIARY

1965

Sandy,

I want to let you know that I have enjoyed knowing you and considering you a friend. You are a sweet guy (at times) and I think you deserve the best life has to offer. I never will forget the good times I've had with you. I use to think a lot of you but I've given up! I think I've found the boy I want to go with and I truly hope you find the right one for you. When you do, you can say, "I've finally found her!" after so long and after hurting quite a few girls. Well, enough about you! I truly hope you succeed in whatever you undertake in the future. Be good and stay sweet!

'Always'
Jean
(David)

Sandy,

Best of luck always to a real sweet boy. I have really had some good times with you. I'll always remember the nights after the ball games.

I hope before long you'll find that special someone.

Love,
Karen

DEMON'S DIARY

1964

Deep River High School

Sanford, N. C.

Volume Six

Foreword

We, the Annual Staff, present the '65 Demon's Diary to you. We have endeavored to bring out the highlights of this school year. May this book always remind you of the hard work and fun that we've had.

The Editors

GLORIA JOHNSON
SARAH McNEILL

We pause to show our gratitude to one who has contributed unselfishly of his talents and of himself to give our school recognition in the physical and athletic fields.

Under your leadership we have developed a greater school spirit and a broader understanding of sportsmanship.

For this and much more, we salute you, MR. WATSON.

Prophecy

As I gaze into my crystal ball, I see our class ten years from now indulging in their daily affairs.
I see Jean Beal who has graduated from college and has settled down with that special someone from Moncure.
Johnny Beal is now top mechanical Engineer at Western Electric.
I also see Judy Brown, who is now owner of a beauty shop, along with her four children.
Lynda Carpenter is now married to a certain Anderson Creek guy and is the mother of twins.
Barbara Christian has graduated from Atlantic Christian College and is now an English Teacher at Pine Grove High School.
David Dowdy is working very hard at his occupation as bounty hunter for the National Wildlife Service.
Sherron Freeman is retiring from her job as a secretary to start her family.
Harold Gaines is owner of Gaines' truck Stop and Gaines' Trucking service and the proud father of five truck drivers.
Paul Garner is the proud owner and manager of "Leak Creek " Motel and Dean of Leak Creek University.
Sandy High is now professor of Philosophy at Princeton University.
Margaret Johnson is now Mrs. Waylon Angel. She is bookkeeper for Angel's Heavenly Bound Ambulance Center. They now have 4 little Angels.
Brenda Kelly is the proud mother of 2 children. She has also graduated from Charlotte Practical Nursing School.
Joe Luck is now serving in the Special Forces at Fort Bragg and is a colonel.
Walter Lyczkowski is graduating from Carolina and getting ready to leave for his bachelor apartment in Wilmington, N.C.
Larry Matthews has bought out Louise Angel's grocery store and now has a chain of super markets all over North & South Carolina.
Jeff McBryde is in Texas operating an oil well field.
Brenda Nunnery is now Mrs. James Sawyer and is secretary of his big business firm, "Sawyer's Electric Company."
Tony Ragan is now teaching at State and plans to get married and have six children.
Shirley Rutherford is now happily married with two children.
Joe Spivey is an engineer improving products for better living.
Bettie Sineath is now happily married and a mother of five with "darling blue eyes."
Marilyn Thomas has yet to settle down, so she is still roving the county till she finds an occupation.
Phyllis Thomas is married with three children, she also just graduated from I.E.C. as a licensed practical nurse.
Larry Wicker and Phil Bridges have joined partnership in a Barber Institute a few miles the other side of Moncure.
Larry Wilder is walking down the street with his son in one arm and diapers in the other.
Karen Williams is living in a new housing development with her husband and set of darling twins.
Wayne Womble now owns a chain of barber shops reaching across the U.S.

Last Will and Testament

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of Deep River School, do hereby make, declare, and publish this, our Last Will and Testament, to the students who follow in our ways.

I, Jean Beal, do leave my small figure to "Big Mama" in hopes it will be helpful to her!
I, Johnny Beal, do leave my "Math-Brain" to Roman Lyczkowski.
I, Judy Brown, do leave my position as Bus Monitor to anyone who can fill it.
I, Lynda Carpenter, do leave my superlative of "Most Dependable" to Sarah McNeill.
I, Barbara Christian, do leave my ability to get along with a certain science teacher to anyone who needs it and my "ideal" I'll keep for myself.
I, David Dowdy, do leave my ability to make a career of school to anyone who has no more sense than to try it.
I, Sherron Freeman, do leave my ability to have fun because I am a blonde to Mr. Watson.
I, Harold Gaines, do leave my bus to any student who is crazy enough to come to school everyday to drive that piece of junk.
I, Paul Garner, do leave my bus to anyone who thinks they can speed shift the gears as well as I can.
I, Sandy High, do leave nothing. I can't afford to.
I, Margaret Johnson, do leave my size 10's to Dorothy Holt; and my good times at "ole D.R." I'll keep and cherish forever.
I, Brenda Kelly, do leave my speedy Falcon and ability to get into trouble to Nancy Wicker.
I, Joe Luck, do leave my big feet to my sister Martha, and my height to Tony Dawkins.
I, Walter Lyczkowski, do leave to Mr. Ragan a new paddle and hope that he will use it to the best of his ability.
I, Larry Matthews, do leave my ability to be mischievous and stay out of the office to my brother Ricky.
I, Jeff McBryde, do leave my ability to hit home runs to Junior Sprouse and my ability to play basketball to Gordon Harton.
I, Brenda Nunnery, do leave my ability to make good grades to my brothers and sisters.
I, Tony Ragan, do leave my favorite Agriculture teacher, Mr. Ragan, to Lynn Gaines.
I, Shirley Rutherford, do leave my ability to stay out of trouble to anyone who is naughty.
I, Bettie Sineath, do leave my superlative of "Miss Deep River" to anyone who can handle it.
I, Joe Spivey, do leave my ability to leave my Chemistry experiments half-finished to anyone who can't get started.
I, Marilyn Thomas, do leave my superlative, "Best All Around", to my sister, Betty Jo and my position as chief-cheerleader to Linda Williams.
I, Phyllis Thomas, do leave my title, "Most Valuable Player", to my brother, Donnie; Johnny I will keep forever.
I, Larry Wicker, do leave my ability to get into trouble and my Fast Back to "Fat" Gaines.
I, Karen Williams, do leave my ability to stay in trouble to my sister and hope she can find as many ways of getting out of it as I did.
I, Larry Wilder, do leave my ability to play basketball to Larry Cole, and my ability to finish school and be married to anyone who thinks he can tackle it.
I, Wayne Womble, do leave my position on the basketball team to Junior Sprouse.

Sandy,

I have enjoyed it the most going to school with you. You have to behave and when you get to be [illegible] like it, so don't, wait and wait for all those because as good looking as you are you won't be able to keep them off. You have a long life time all mapped out for you and you are ready to face it. Keep up your work and may the good Lord bless and keep you the rest of the days of your life. Take care of your self when you go off to college. Don't let it get you down. Here is best wishes to a wonderful and sweet boy. You really deserve the best that life has. Be good.

Love Always Friend.
A. Ta

Sandy,

There aren't any words to tell you how much it treasure being one of your many friends. Loving you last summer for the first time I knew you'd be as sweet, nice and understanding as you are now. You are a terrific kid boy and I'll never forget you. You gave me a lot of advice at the beginning of the school year you have cheered me up many mornings, I'll come to the bus stop and you'd always be there to cheer me up with a warm smile. I can't write just what I want to say but Sandy, there is no other person I'd like to see reach success than you. Best of luck to a real boy. God Bless you.

Always,
Cynthia

"Sandy,"

Best wishes to you and hoping that you will succeed in the future in whatever you undertake. I have enjoyed your company through high school and home had a great time. I hope that you will come through at the "Hill" (Ha! Ha!) and will be over there in about 2 years. I doubt that I will be over there in about 2 years. I doubt that I will be over there this summer! If you knew what I am talking about. I hope that you are finally decided on whether or not you are going to "run" around with some certain school girls. If I were you, I would go Stanford every [illegible] (Ha! Ha!) I'm at the Jr. & Sr. Banquet, I hope that you will not "mess" up Pittsburg on Stanford every [illegible] (Ha! Ha!) I'm not telling you any more about losing your ballfield. Well, I guess I'll be my own material self, gone for about 4 years (at the Hill) so, during that time I guess I'll be my own material self, drunk! Remember, with your I. Q. a jack-ass could head your (Ha! Ha!). First joking. Seriously, you have the ability to go out and be a success in the future, oh, don't let it get by you. I have a magnificent personality and sometimes I can't understand them. Remember our "little" get together at New York in the rooms. Boy, what a blast it will be! I will always remember the fun and times together that we have had. Be your self and you will come out on the best endeavors in the future. Thanks for all the fun you have let me in with you.

Sandy,

It's been real great having fourth and sixth period with you this year. I guess you've noticed how bratty I am in both classes but I do enjoy good ole Demetry! Sandy, I will always remember you as one of the smartest boys at H.R. It's been so nice having you around but why the heck did you have to be so darned smart and skip a grade? Do you remember when we were mascots and May day king and queen? I had a terrible crush on you that I'll never forget. I hope you make it at Carolina! Good luck always!

Be good!

A friend,
